TRUTH

(Chp. 27 (Cate 7) "Holy Instructions of Unity")

1) The gifts of the understanding are the treasures of Allah and He appointed to every one his portion in what measure seemeth good unto Himself. 2) Hath He endowed thee with wisdom? Hath He enlightened thy mind with the knowledge of truth? Communicate it to the use, for thine own improvement 3) True wisdom is less presuming than folly. The wise man doubted often, and changeth his mind; the fool is obstinate, and doubted not; he knoweth all things but his own ignorance 4) The pride of emptiness is an abomination and to talk much is the foolishness of folly; nevertheless, it is the part of wisdom to hear with patience ...

* Zebu: Sometimes known as humped cattle or Brahman, is a species or sub-species of domestic cattle originating in South Asia. Zebu are characterized by a fatty hump on their shoulders, or drooping ears and a large dewlap. They are well adapted to withstanding high temperatures. There are some 75 known breeds of zebu, split about evenly between African breeds and South Asian ones. The zebu has also been taken to South America from Africa, where zebu populations are continuously growing.

The humpless cattle found throughout Africa today are considered to be a subspecies of the zebu that have adapted to life without their characteristic hump. Nevertheless, these hump-free cattle are able to survive without complaint in their subtropical environment.
